

About Asilomar

Asilomar Conference Grounds, known as Monterey Peninsula's "Refuge by the Sea" is located on 107 acres of protected beachfront land at 800 Asilomar Avenue in Pacific Grove.

Phone (831) 372-8016.

Activities

Outdoor year-round heated swimming pool, sand volleyball court, ping-pong and pool table are available. A coastal board walk and self-guided walking tours are also available.

Attire is Casual

Wear comfortable shoes and clothing to enjoy walking along the beach and exploring the tide pools. Bring a sweat shirt and a jacket as sometimes it gets rather chilly, but also be prepared for a bright and sunny day! Dressing in layers is recommended. Pack an umbrella for an occasional shower.

Transportation

24 hour taxi service is available from the Monterey Airport.

Resource Tables

To request a resource table in the meeting room, please contact Social Light at (415) 255-0800 or info@social-light.com

Objectives

- Provide leadership training on collaboration and partnership building.
- Facilitate program planning and policy development in the promotion of fruit and vegetable consumption and regular physical activity.
- Share information and resources in planning and implementing nutrition and physical activity programs in collaboration with "non-traditional" partners.
- Participate in developing a strategic focus for CCLHDN moving forward.
- Network and share best public health nutrition practices from colleagues.
- Obtain updates on California Department of Public Health programs.
- Collaborate with affiliate organization, California Conference of Local Directors of Health Education (CCLDHE) on issues of common interest including reduction of chronic disease.

About CCLHDN

The California Conference of Local Health Department Nutritionists (CCLHDN) consists of a professional nutritionist from each local health department in California. It is an affiliate of the California Conference of Local Health Officers (CCLHO).

The California Conference of Local Health Department Nutritionists works to assure the nutritional well being of all Californians.

To achieve this we:

- Provide leadership and education on nutrition issues.
- Utilize advocacy and organized community efforts to identify and address public health nutrition issues.

For more information, or membership, contact the Nutrition Services staff, the Health Officer of your local Public Health Department or visit the CCLHDN website at www.cclhdn.org.

Partial funding provided by USDA's Food Stamp Program, an equal opportunity provider and employer, helping limited income Californians buy more nutritious foods for a healthier diet. For information about Food Stamps, please call 1-800-952-5253.
