

About Asilomar

Asilomar Conference Grounds, known as Monterey Peninsula's "Refuge by the Sea," is located on 107 acres of protected beach-front land at 800 Asilomar Avenue in Pacific Grove. Phone: (831) 372-8016.

Activities

Outdoor, year-round, heated swimming pool, sand volleyball court, ping-pong and pool table are available. A coastal boardwalk and self-guided walking tours are also available.

Attire

Wear comfortable shoes and clothing to enjoy walking along the beach and exploring the tide pools. Bring a sweatshirt and a jacket as sometimes it gets rather chilly, but also be prepared for a bright and sunny day! Dressing in layers is recommended. Pack an umbrella for an occasional shower.

Transportation

24-hour taxi service is available from the Monterey Airport.

Resource Tables

To request a resource table in the meeting room, please contact Melody Steeples at (530) 231-5562 or melody@can-act.net.

Conference Objectives

- Inspire nutritionists to seek greater understanding of and involvement in emerging policy.
- Prepare conference participants for managing changes to programs and funding.
- Encourage development of skills for reaching and cultivating new audiences and partners.
- Provide a venue for professional networking and sharing best practices.

About CCLHDN

The California Conference of Local Health Department Nutritionists (CCLHDN) consists of a professional nutritionist from each local health department in California. It is an affiliate of the California Conference of Local Health Officers (CCLHO).

CCLHDN provides leadership on nutrition issues to promote healthy food and physical activity environments. We advocate for policy change and implementation, and we foster collaboration and professional development.

For more information or to join, contact the Nutrition Services staff or Health Officer of your local Public Health Department, or visit the CCLHDN website at www.cclhdn.org.
